Boggle and Bruce Clean Up is a delightful children's book that teaches kids about the importance of cleaning up. The book is full of fun and engaging rhymes, and the illustrations are sure to capture the attention of young readers.

The story follows Boggle and Bruce, two friends who love to play. But one day, they make a big mess. They spill paint, they drop food, and they track mud all over the floor.

Boggle and Bruce know that they need to clean up, but they don't want to. They're too busy having fun. But then, they start to feel bad about the mess they've made. They realize that it's not fair to leave it for someone else to clean up.

So, Boggle and Bruce put on their cleaning gloves and get to work. They sweep, they mop, and they vacuum. They clean up every nook and cranny until the house is sparkling clean.

Boggle and Bruce are proud of themselves for cleaning up. They know that they've made a difference, and they're happy to have a clean house to play in.

Boggle and Bruce Clean Up is a great book for kids of all ages. It teaches kids about the importance of cleaning up, and it shows them that cleaning up can be fun. The book is also a great way to teach kids about responsibility and cooperation.
