The Prophet: A Timeless Masterpiece

"The Prophet" is Gibran's most renowned work, a collection of 26 poetic essays that delve into universal themes of love, life, beauty, and truth. Through the eyes of Al Mustafa, a wise poet-prophet, Gibran shares profound wisdom and spiritual guidance that has touched countless lives. Each essay is a lyrical treasure, exploring the depths of human existence and offering invaluable insights for navigating life's complexities.

The Madman: A Voice of Dissent and Enlightenment

"The Madman" is a collection of parables and aphorisms that explores the nature of wisdom, authority, and society. Through the voice of a madman, Gibran challenges conventional norms and exposes the hypocrisy and follies of humanity. In his unconventional wisdom, we find a glimmer of truth and a reminder to question our own beliefs and values.

The Forerunner: A Poetic Exploration of Human Destiny

"The Forerunner" is a collection of Gibran's early writings, including poems, fragments, and philosophical essays. It reveals the genesis of his literary genius and provides a glimpse into the mind of a young artist grappling with the complexities of human existence. Through his words, we witness the seeds of Gibran's later masterpieces, as he explores themes of love, spirituality, and the search for meaning.

Complete Biography: Unraveling the Life of a Literary Icon
