Sarah is a young woman who is struggling to come to terms with the death of her husband. She is lost and alone, and she doesn't know how to move on with her life.

Susan is a middle-aged woman who is facing a difficult decision. Her husband has been diagnosed with a terminal illness, and she is not sure how to cope with the thought of losing him.

Mary is an elderly woman who is living in a nursing home. She has lost her memory, and she doesn't remember who she is or where she came from.

These three women are brought together by a tragic accident that leaves them all injured. As they recover from their injuries, they begin to share their stories with each other. They find comfort in each other's company, and they learn to lean on each other for support.

Over time, Sarah, Susan, and Mary form a deep bond with each other. They become like family to each other, and they help each other through some of the most difficult times in their lives.

People To Be Loved is a story of hope and redemption. It is a story about the power of love to heal wounds and to bring people together. It is a story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.
