Chapter 2: The First Set of Five Horary Points

In this chapter, we will explore the first set of five horary points: the Ascendant, Sun, Moon, Part of Fortune, and Part of Spirit. Each point represents a specific aspect of our lives, such as our physical presence, vitality, emotions, material well-being, and spiritual connection. Through detailed descriptions and practical exercises, you will learn to identify and interpret these points, gaining insights into your current situation and future prospects.

Chapter 3: The Second Set of Five Horary Points

The second set of five horary points comprises the Lord of the Ascendant, the Lord of the House, the Lord of the Question, the Almuten of the Ascendant, and the Almuten of the Question. These points provide deeper insights into our relationships, career, goals, and overall life direction. We will examine the significance of each point and learn how to determine its strength and influence within a horary chart.

Chapter 4: Interpreting Horary Charts

With a solid understanding of the horary points, we will delve into the art of interpreting horary charts. We will explore various chart patterns, planetary configurations, and aspects between planets. By synthesizing these elements, you will learn to draw meaningful conclusions about the specific question being asked, gaining clarity on matters of love, career, health, and more.

Chapter 5: Case Studies and Real-World Applications

To solidify your understanding, this chapter presents real-world case studies that demonstrate the practical application of horary astrology. We will analyze actual horary charts, step-by-step, to illustrate how the principles and techniques discussed throughout the book can be used to gain valuable insights into life's challenges and opportunities.
