In his thought-provoking book, "Where Is Jesus Now?," Pawson delves into the Scriptures, meticulously examining the accounts of Jesus' resurrection and ascension. With his characteristic clarity and unwavering conviction, he guides readers on a journey of discovery, revealing the multifaceted nature of Christ's ongoing presence and influence in our world today.

The Mystery Unraveled: Jesus' Ascension and Glorification

Pawson begins by examining the pivotal event of Jesus' ascension, as recorded in the Gospel accounts. He meticulously analyzes the significance of Jesus' bodily resurrection and His triumphant return to the Father's presence. Through insightful exegesis and compelling arguments, he establishes that Jesus' ascension was not a departure but rather an elevation to a new realm of existence.

Drawing upon biblical passages, Pawson demonstrates that Jesus' ascension marked His glorification, a profound transformation that imbued

Him with unparalleled authority, dominion, and power. He illuminates how Christ's ascended state enables Him to intercede for His followers, advocate their cause, and prepare a place for them in the heavenly realm.

The Omnipresence of Christ: In Our Hearts and Throughout Creation

Beyond the historical event of the ascension, Pawson explores the ongoing presence of Jesus in the lives of believers. He emphasizes that Jesus' Spirit indwells every Christian, establishing a personal and intimate connection that transcends time and space. Pawson eloquently illustrates how the Holy Spirit serves as a divine ambassador, guiding, empowering, and comforting believers.

Moreover, Pawson reveals that Jesus' presence extends far beyond the confines of the Church. He contends that Christ is active and present in all of creation, pervading the universe with His divine essence. Through poetic imagery and profound insights, he demonstrates how Jesus sustains and guides the intricate workings of nature, orchestrating events and influencing the destiny of nations.

The Return of Christ: A Hope and a Promise

While acknowledging the current absence of Jesus' physical presence on earth, Pawson offers a beacon of hope by delving into the biblical prophecies regarding Christ's return. He meticulously examines the eschatological passages, providing a comprehensive understanding of the events that will herald Jesus' second coming.

Pawson emphasizes that Christ's return is not a mere speculative event but a tangible promise that anchors our faith and fuels our anticipation. He skillfully weaves together biblical insights, historical events, and current signs to paint a vivid picture of the approaching day when Jesus will establish His eternal kingdom and reign supreme on earth.
